

1. A beautiful interface will be created with UX Research in mind to give users the desirable User Interface and Experience

2. The user will enter their Grade 12 board exam marks

5. The algorithm will collect the data from the predefined CSV file which contains the list of Universities

6. Now this data will be processed by using Applied Data Science method

IDEATION

3. This mark will be stored in the backend

4. The algorithm for this particular program will take the inputs and process it

7. This ADS method will also train the data by using a specified model for better predictions

8. Now the data that is processed by the algorithm is now transmitted from backend to frontend User Interface